Ulster County Has A New Web Address

Kingston, NY – David Donaldson, Chairman of the Ulster County Legislature, invites Ulster County residents to access the county government website by using the new “user-friendly” address of ulstercountyny.gov. While the previous address of co.ulster.ny.us still works fine, the new address will be easier to remember and provide the public with quicker access to the county government website.

Chairman Donaldson urges residents to use the county website for quick, up-to-date information on legislative meetings, committees and recent press releases. The county website is also an excellent resource for information on government services, tourism, County Clerks records and Charter Commission meetings. The website is constantly updated so residents can access up-to-date information on the business of county government.

The Ulster County website is maintained in-house by the Information Services Department. Chairman Donaldson acknowledged their efforts developing this valuable resource and ensuring the information therein is current and of the best use to county residents.
